

2019-2020 Washoe Off-Rez Winter Raffle Survey

Like last year, we will be raffling off $50 checks to the winners. Please complete and return this survey to be considered in this year's Off-Rez Winter Raffle.

If you are chosen in the raffle, the Tribe's finance department will need a W-9 on file in order to send you a check. We've included the required form in case you wanted to mail it back with the survey to get a jumpstart on the process.

Mail completed surveys to:

Washoe Tribe Off-Rez
919 US HWY 395 N
Gardnerville, Nevada 89410

Or email to: offres@washoetribe.us

Deadline to submit is Wednesday January 8th at 5pm

NOTE: This survey is for internal purposes only. Sensitive information will NOT be released to the public.

Below is a map of Washoe Homelands including both primary and secondary-use areas as determined by Deward Walker Jr. Follow instructions for Part 2 of the survey located on Page 2 (i.e. please CIRCLE general areas, and STAR specific sites that you believe are important for protection by the Washoe Tribe). To the best of your ability, please describe why you chose these areas on Page 5.

Below is a map of Washoe County, Nevada. There are currently efforts to transfer Federal Lands (U.S. Forest Service lands, and Bureau of Land Management lands) to local municipalities for both economic development, and for conservation (See: https://www.washoecounty.us/csd/planning_and_development/conservation-act.php for more information). Much of the land to be transferred are within our traditional homelands as Washoe people. Our families have been using these areas for thousands of years, and some of the areas that are important to our community members (and potentially still in use by our community members) may not be known to the Tribe at this time. Please follow instructions for Part 2 of the survey located on Page 2 (i.e. CIRCLE general areas, and STAR specific sites that you believe are important for protection by the Washoe Tribe). To the best of your ability, please describe why you chose these areas on the next page.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
